

Jens Ocksen

In 1985, Jens Ocksen graduated from the Faculty of Technology of Manufacturing at the Technical University of Hannover, and was granted the title of Engineer, Master of Science. Immediately after graduation he began working for Volkswagen AG as planner. In the years 1989 to 1993 he worked at the department which manufactured the T4 model.

In 1993, Jens Ocksen took up the job of Production Manager in a factory in Taiwan. After three years he returned to Hannover where he held managerial functions in the departments of Cost-Center and assembly of models T4 and T5.

Since 2003 till June 2006 he held managerial position at the concern department of quality assurance.

Since July 2006 he held the function of production manager at Volkswagen Poznań.

As of 1st February 2007, Jens Ocksen took up the responsibilities of President of the Board of Volkswagen Poznań.